Frequently Asked Questions

What do I include in my bio?

Include your name, and your graduate program that you are currently enrolled in at Athabasca University. You can share things like experiences as an AU student, career background, volunteer experience, and personal interests. It is up to you to determine what to include in your bio but keep it focused on what would be insightful for the Council to make informed decisions when voting.

How many words can my bio be?

Your bio is maximum 200 words. Not a single word over 200. Candidates often target the 100 to 200-word range. If your bio is over 200 words, the end of your bio will be cut off.

Am I eligible for a faculty representative position?

All AU Graduate Students are eligible for the Council positions. Permanent full time AU staff are not eligible to run for either Council positions.

Council: All councillors must be active members in good standing and successfully complete at least three (3) University graduate credits during their term in office.

*Active members of the association include all graduate students, program and non-program, at the University who are in good standing.

Can I contact the Executive Director for more information?

Yes! Send Meaghan an email or give her a phone call. She would be thrilled to give you more information to help you decide on running for either an Executive Committee or Council seat.
